“Faith Community — Come Catch the Spirit!”

- † Worship-Centered: with a blend of old and new, we offer a unique worship style.
- † Bible-Centered: When it comes to our scripture readings and our sermons, worshipers are encouraged to follow along with their pew bibles as we “dig together” into the Word of God.
- † Prayer-Centered: worshipers are encouraged to openly share their own prayer petitions. It is so inspiring to hear faithful prayers being lifted from worshipers of all ages, 3 to 93.
- † Visitor-Friendly: We encourage our worshipers to get involved! We welcome new faces and new ideas in all of the many ministries here at Faith!

The Celebration of Worship

20th Sunday after Pentecost

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, “Welcome to the Lord’s Table.”

20th Sunday

after Pentecost

October 10, 2010

Fellowship

Zacchaeus was an outcast in his society. Not only was he connected with the Roman government, he was the lowest of the low – a tax collector. Some believe he was a “middle man” between those who actually collected the tax and the Roman government. Like others in his profession, he probably skimmed a portion of the taxes for himself. So it appears that he was doubly sinful: a collaborator with the Romans and a crook. But he was curious, and he wanted to see Jesus.

Imagine the shock among the crowd when Jesus invited Himself to the house of this horrible man! And imagine Zacchaeus’ shock! Nobody in his right mind would consider fellowship with someone like this. Yet Jesus openly said, “I must stay at your house today.” Zacchaeus did not approach Jesus. Jesus went to him.

Jesus comes to all of us sinners and says, “I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.” Zacchaeus heard Jesus’ knock and became a new man.

His response has always fascinated me. Zacchaeus didn’t just confess his sins before Jesus and the crowd, which in itself would have been a miracle. He also took steps to clean up his life. Like the rich young man in last week’s gospel, Zacchaeus was obsessed with money. But he vowed before Jesus and the whole community gathered there to give up his obsession.

“I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see” could be Zacchaeus’ song. It is our wonderful song as well.

Lord, we thank you for finding us, cleansing us, and giving us a new life in you. Amen. Miles Olsen

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy. We believe the Lord led you here. Please stop by our Welcome Center and sign our electronic guest book before you leave.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you.

HOPE Sack Lunches:

I am beginning to fill the 2011 schedule for making sack lunches for the homeless! FC provides these lunches on the 3rd Sunday of each month. We make 20 sack lunches and deliver them to the HOPE warehouse in south Longmont. This is a great activity to do with your small group or your kids to help teach them about reaching out to those who have so much less than we do!! And, Outreach will reimburse you for your expenses! If you would be interested in signing up for a Sunday in 2011, please email LaRae at lareschaff@yahoo.com.
